THE HONGKONG DISPENSARY

Езтаныянно д.р. 1841.

HONGKUND, JANUARY 97H, 1802. THE sentence of four years' penul servitude passed on Dr. CLUTTERBUCK, the clergyman who obtained £35,000 by fraud, has been condemned by come of the home papers for its leniency. The criminal was an Asspector under the Local Government Board and succeeded in persuading a number of his friends that he was commissioned by the Government to raise a secret loan on which interest at the rate of ten per cent, was to be paid. By these representations he obtained the large sum of £35,000, though £16,000. The question of the precise amount, however, does not make much difference in the character of the crime. BOBMAY. 19th December. The Bombay police have done good a rvice bringing to light the operations of a forger who had lately caused alarm throughout the five-ropes currency notes. Recently a young Mogul was arrested by the Sholapore police on anspicium of passing forged notes upon unsuspecting villagers, but the Sholupore police could not obtain any evidence against the acoused, and he was eventually sent on to Bombay, as it transpired that he had been living here until very lately. The local detectives soon took up the scent and found that the acoused had been manufacturing five runse notes in Hombay for the past two years. The notes were excellently lithographed on water marked paper which the accused said he had obtained in Constantinople. The forger has been sentenced on conviction to transportation for life. SCARCITY IN THE DECCAN. Sad accounts of scarcity come from parts the Decean and the Southern Mahratta countr It is reported that in the Decom twelve bullocks have been sold for one rupes by agriculturists who despaired of being able to feed their cattle In the Southern Mahratta country the condition is so serious that arrangements have been made by Government for opening relief works. The Governor leaves Bombay on a tour through the affected districts during Christmas week.

It is almost to be wished that the long suffering Mrs. Pepys had also kept a diary, so that we might have known how matters stood from her point of view. Mr. Wheatley also gives the following hitherto unpublished bit of diary: which not only shows how much the poor wife had to not up with on coount of her husband's infidelities, but which also throws a curi as light on the mariners and morals of the time. Mrs.

Pepps was forced, during one of those nightly conversations, which must surely have given ther. that she had always been a good and faithful wife to him, and she mentioned, writes Pepys in that wonderful diary.
